Volunteer Opportunities

2012 Tulare County History Day
“Revolution, Reaction, Reform in History”
Friday, March 16, 2012

Tulare County History Day is recruiting judges to help select this year’s student winners. If you’re interested in judging, there are a few ways you can help.

We are seeking volunteers to scan student-generated websites and read student-authored papers during the week before the competition. Judges are also needed on the event day, Friday, March 16, 2012, from 8:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. to evaluate exhibit, poster, documentary and performance, website and paper entries and interview the student competitors.

Your knowledge, expertise and interest in education make you a welcome candidate for History Day judge and we appreciate your involvement.

- Who? Anyone interested in being part of an exhibition of student talents integrating History Social-Science, English Language Arts and Fine Arts
- What? History Day Project Judging
- When? Friday, March 16, 2012, from 8:00 am - 1:00 pm
Tulare County Office of Education
7000 Doe Avenue, Visalia, CA 93291
- Why? To promote student learning of History/Social Science and English-Language Arts Content Standards
