Tulare County Office of Education announces: Young Authors' Faire on Display in Education Center 2637 West Burrel, Visalia • March 31 – April 4, 2008

Kindergarten through eighth-grade students will soon display their writings at the annual Young Authors' Faire. For the event, students write, illustrate and bind their stories for the public to read. The books are on display for the week of March 31 – April 4, 2008, in the Education Center of the Tulare County Office of Education. During the week, visitors are invited to read and comment on the books. An evening reception will be held from 4:00 to 6:30 p.m. on Thursday, April 3, so that the public can meet the young authors and celebrate their successes. The Tulare County Office of Education is located at 2637 W. Burrel in Visalia.

“The Young Author’s Fair not only supports the development of writing skills, but artistic skills as well,” says Tulare County Superintendent of Schools Jim Vidak. The authors’ works will be available for viewing beginning at 1:00 p.m. on Monday, March 31. The exhibition will be open from 9:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. daily for the remainder of the week, except on Friday, when it will close at 3:00 p.m. For additional information, contact Robert Herman, Public Information Officer, at (559) 733-6606.
